Questions for discussion for Easter Sunday

Prepared by Kathryn

Please discuss the questions below and appoint a spokesperson to feed back on Easter Sunday Morning.

“If Jesus rose from the dead, it changes everything.” Timothy Keller

1. Jesus Christ has been vindicated.

“Then he said to them, ‘These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.’ Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, ‘Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.’” (Luke 24:44-48)

2. Death has been dealt a mortal wound.

“I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.” (Genesis 3:15)

3. Jesus Christ has risen to be always making intercession for his people.

“Who shall bring any charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who is indeed interceding for us.” (Romans 8:33-34)

4. Jesus has made us victorious over death and sin.

“The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” (1 Corinthians 15:56-57)

What would the world look like if there was no story of resurrection?

How does the resurrection change our perspective on the way that we live?

What does the resurrection mean to you?

Do you have any dreams of what you hope resurrected life will be like?
